Holy Communion

Introit – Psalm 27: 8-12

Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee;
mercy upon me and hear me.

My heart hath talked with thee: 'Seek ye my face';
'Thy face, Lord, will I seek.'

O hide not thy face from me,
nor cast thy servant away in displeasure.

Thou hast been my succour;
leave me not, neither forsake me,
O God of my salvation.

When my father and my mother forsake me,
the Lord taketh me up.

p 67 The Collect

p 69 The Summary of the Law

The Collect of the Day

First Reading

Reader: The Lesson is written in Genesis 25:21-34

...

Reader: Here endeth the Lesson.

Psalm 119:105-112

Thy word is a lantern unto my feet,
and a light unto my path.

I have sworn, and am stedfastly purposed,
to keep thy righteous judgements.

I am troubled above measure:
quicken me, O Lord, according to thy word.

Let the free-will offerings of my mouth please thee, O Lord,
and teach me thy judgements.

My life is always in my hand;

yet do I not forget thy law.

The ungodly have laid a snare for me;

but yet I swerved not from thy precepts.

Thy testimonies have I claimed as mine heritage for ever;

and why? They are the very joy of my heart.

I have applied my heart to fulfil thy statutes,

always, even unto the end.

Second Reading

Reader: The Epistle is written in Romans 8:1-11

The Communion

In Anglican churches, everyone who is baptized is welcome to come and receive communion. You may kneel or stand at the altar rail to receive communion. If you are unable to come to the altar rail, please notify the sides people and they will alert the Communion Servers to come to you. You may receive communion at either the front or at the rear of the church, when available.

Communion consists of two parts: a small wafer, “the body of Christ” and a cup with wine, “the blood of Christ.” These will be offered to you with the saying: “The body (blood) of Christ given (shed) for you.”

You receive the wafer in your outstretched cupped hands. Please note that gluten-free wafers are available at the front – just ask the server. You drink from the cup when the server offers it to you. You may assist the server by holding the cup when it is offered.

It is customary to eat the wafer when you receive it and then drink from the cup when it is offered to you. (The Anglican Church of Canada reports “... that the present use of the common cup is normative for Anglican churches, follows the practice of the universal church from its beginnings until well into the middle ages, and poses no real hazard to health in normal circumstances.” “Communion in only one kind (the bread) is the best option for those fearful of the cup.”)

If you would like to come forward for a blessing instead of communion, please indicate this by crossing your arms over your chest. The same is true if you wish to “pass” on the communion cup.

Communion is an important part of our worship. Please use this time to prayerfully prepare yourself for communion and to reflect on Jesus’ gift after you have received communion. You may find singing the Communion Hymns helpful. Please refrain from talking during this time.
