Introit – Psalm 27:1-4

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear?

The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?

When the wicked came upon me to eat up my flesh,
even mine enemies and my foes, they stumbled and fell.
Though an host of men were laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid;

And though there rose up war against me, yet will I put my trust in him.

One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I will require:
even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to visit his temple.

Psalm 1

Blessed is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners, and hath not sat in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the Lord;

and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the water-side,

that bringeth forth his fruit in due season.

Whose leaf doth not wither;

and look, whatsoever he doeth, it shall prosper.

As for the ungodly, it is not so with them;

but they are like the chaff, which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgement, neither the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous;

but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Second Reading – 1 John 5:9-17, 20-21 (p. 865)

Reader: The Epistle is written in the 5th Chapter of 1 John beginning at the 9th verse.

Reader: Here endeth the Epistle.

Hail, Thou Once Despised Jesus

John Bakewell

Hail, thou once despised Jesus,

Hail, thou Galilean King:

Thou didst suffer to redeem us.

Thou didst free salvation bring.

Hail, thou universal Saviour,

Bearer of our sin and shame,

By thy merits we find favour;

Life is given through thy Name.

Paschal Lamb, by God appointed,
All our sins on thee were laid;
By almighty love anointed,
Thou hast full atonement made.
All thy people are forgiven,
Through the virtue of thy Blood:
Opened is the gate of heaven,
Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

Jesu, hail! Enthroned in glory,
There for ever to abide;
All the heavenly hosts adore thee,
Seated at thy Father's side;
Worship, honour, power, and blessing
Thou art worthy to receive;
Loudest praises, without ceasing,
Meet it is for us to give.

The Communion

In Anglican churches, everyone who is baptized is welcome to come and receive communion. You may kneel or stand at the altar rail to receive communion. If you are unable to come to the altar rail, please notify the sides people and they will alert the Communion Servers to come to you. You may receive communion at either the front or at the rear of the church, when available.

Communion consists of two parts: a small wafer, “the body of Christ” and a cup with wine, “the blood of Christ.” These will be offered to you with the saying: “The body (blood) of Christ given (shed) for you.”

You receive the wafer in your outstretched cupped hands. Please note that gluten-free wafers are available at the front – just ask the server. You drink from the cup when the server offers it to you. You may assist the server by holding the cup when it is offered.

It is customary to eat the wafer when you receive it and then drink from the cup when it is offered to you. (The Anglican Church of Canada reports “... that the present use of the common cup is normative for Anglican churches, follows the practice of the universal church from its beginnings until well into the middle ages, and poses no real hazard to health in normal circumstances.” “Communion in only one kind (the bread) is the best option for those fearful of the cup.”)

If you would like to come forward for a blessing instead of communion, please indicate this by crossing your arms over your chest. The same is true if you wish to “pass” on the communion cup.

Communion is an important part of our worship. Please use this time to prayerfully prepare yourself for communion and to reflect on Jesus’ gift after you have received communion. You may find singing the Communion Hymns helpful. Please refrain from talking during this time.
